

Community Forum: Should the City of Salem adopt a Sanctuary City ordinance?

Come and learn more about what it means to be a Sanctuary City, including information on current public safety practices and the benefits of living in a city that protects the rights of all Salem residents.

Topics:

- What the City of Salem already does to protect all residents, including undocumented immigrants.
- Why it is important for Salem to affirm basic human rights for all residents.
- The many different meanings of “sanctuary city” and why passing such an ordinance will not jeopardize federal funding for Salem.
- How passing an ordinance will not alter many of our current City policies and practices.
- Why the US needs a new, updated immigration policy that is fair and humane.

Tue, Jan. 24 at 7 pm

St. Peter’s Episcopal Church Iglesia Episcopal de San Pedro

24 St. Peter St.
Salem, MA 01970
978 745-2291

Speakers:

Mary Butler, Chief, the Salem Police Department

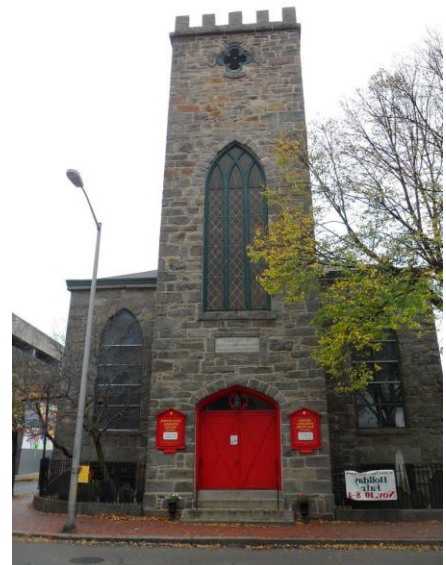

David Eppley, Salem City Councilor

Jeff Cohen, Chair, Salem’s No Place for Hate Committee

Ana Nuncio, Settlement Partnerships Manager, The House of the Seven Gables

Alexandra Piñeros-Shields, Executive Director, Essex County Community Organization

Members of Salem’s Local Immigrant Community

Sponsored by the Salem Interfaith Council

Including: Rev. Silvestre Romero, Rev. Joe Amico, Rev. Debbie Phillips, and Rev. Jeff Barz-Snell